Changes in Leadership at Witness Justice Board of Directors Welcomes New Member; Co-chair Named

Washington, DC - Pamela Pine has joined the Witness Justice Board of Directors. In December, Pine, Ph.D., MPH, MAIA, CHES, of Bowie, MD, founder and CEO of Stop the Silence, an international non-profit organization that focuses on the prevention and treatment of child sexual abuse (CSA), was elected by members to serve a two-year term.

For the past three decades, Pine has specialized in program and materials development for health and information, education, and communications projects. Her many contributions have enhanced communities, businesses, and organizations and have benefitted many groups, including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the World Bank, National Institutes of Health, U.S. Agency for International Development, the World Health Organization, and the Peace Corps.

Other board changes include the shift of Jeni Gamble, Ph.D., of Louisville, KY, elected to the Board in July, who will now serve as co-chair with Maria Tarajano-Rodman, the current Interim Board Chair.

A veteran with over ten years experience with victim services, Gamble is the Director of the VINE (Victim Information and Notification Everyday) Protective Order system with Apriss, Inc. Her dedication to the mission of Witness Justice and her enthusiasm to further the work of the organization has made her a prime candidate for the position. Gamble is also a two time marathon runner with Team Heal Trauma, Witness Justice's charity running team.

Witness Justice is a national grassroots nonprofit organization, based in Maryland. Our mission is to provide support and advocacy for victims of violence and trauma. For more information, please visit us at www.WitnessJustice.org.
